

Frank, Liza & Sammy

A Tribute

The Ultimate Concert

Suzanne Goulet as Liza

Born in Montreal, Canada, Suzanne began tap dancing at the age of four. She studied ballet and jazz with Eddy Toussaint, who eventually hired her as a professional dancer for his renowned Company. Suzanne also appeared in several Canadian television shows.

After her debut in the Las Vegas style revue at the Chateau Champlain Hotel in Montreal with Miller-Reich Productions, Suzanne rose to their lead dancer in big production shows in the United States. She starred at the Miami Sheraton Bal Harbour, the Condado Plaza in Puerto Rico and at the Sands Casino in Atlantic City. Next she joined the Bill Lloyd show "Hooray for Hollywood" on an international tour of Spain, Switzerland and Japan.

While studying voice in New York City, Suzanne was cast as a Rockette and went on a national tour of "Sophisticated Ladies". She also directed and choreographed a show on the RCCL cruise ship, Song of America.

Suzanne began impersonating Liza Minnelli in 1990 with Greg Thompson Productions at the Hilton Hotel in Tokyo and then at Caesars' Casino in Atlantic City. After winning the Smirnoff Look-a-Like competition in New York City, Suzanne went on to win the national award in Hollywood, which led to her appearance on the soap opera "Santa Barbara". In 1992, Suzanne joined the Sand's Hotel "Hollywood Legends Show" in Puerto Rico. Her singing, dancing and impressive resemblance to Liza earned her the headline spot for several years.

Suzanne made her debut in John Stuart's "Legends in Concert" in 1994, at Bally's Grand in Atlantic City. Since then she has continuously performed with the show throughout the United States including an eight month run at the Imperial Palace in Las Vegas. Bob Curtis also employed her in his show "Hollywood Superstars" at the Mystic Lake Casino in Minnesota. Her convention performances include Elizabeth Arden, Burger King, Deloitte & Touche.

In 1996, Suzanne produced her self-contained show "A Moment with Liza" with her Cabaret Dancers at the Estrel Hotel in Berlin, Germany. She then presented it at the Alhambra Casino in Aruba, followed by a six-month run at the luxurious Holiday Inn Casino. After taking the show to Guatemala in 2004, it debuted in the United States at the Angel Cabaret Dinner Theater in Florida, running for four weeks and has since been performed at the Player's Theatre in Sarasota, the Polo Club of Boca Raton, the Italian Festival in Chicago and the Red Hat Society convention in Laughlin, Nevada.

Suzanne also wrote, choreographed and starred in the show "Judy & Liza - Together Again", which opened at the Newport Hotel in Miami Beach in 1993. An immediate success, it was presented at the Foxwood Casino in Connecticut, on the Nordic Empress (RCCL), in the Catskills and in many other theaters in the United States as well as Stage West Dinner Theatre in Canada.

Suzanne was awarded the Best Personification of a Legend in the 2004 Sunburst Convention and Outstanding Performance at the 2006 Reel Awards in Palm Springs. Her most recent project is ARB Productions' Frank, Liza & Sammy.

www.arbproductions.ca