De'zhon Fields as Sammy Davis Jr.

An accomplished singer and dancer with more than 10 years of vocal and dance experience, De'zhon Fields has been able to capture and deliver the legendary style and essence of the great Sammy Davis Jr.

De'zhon began singing and dancing in school and church plays at the age of 10. He has since gone on to perform in theater productions worldwide, beginning with a Tony Award winning play called "Cinderella Brown" where he was a principle dancer in Long Beach California. De'zhon is a former ballroom/salsa instructor and trained for several years under the instruction of National Ballroom/Salsa Champion Sonya Cortez, in Los Angeles, California.

While living in Los Angeles, De'zhon was also very active inspiring youths to perform in live theater. He worked closely with Laura Whittaker (teacher and mother to actor Forrest Whittaker) performing in cultural events. In addition, he went to various youth homes and facilities throughout the greater Los Angeles area, encouraging troubled youth to pursue their dreams.

Having been told he looks like Sammy Davis Jr. most of his life, De'zhon decided to research the great entertainer. After reading the book "Why Not Me" De'zhon realized that he identified with Sammy Davis' style as well as his passion for entertainment and outlook on life. This is what sparked De'zhon passion for tribute artistry. De'zhon began performing as Sammy Davis Jr. in tribute shows in his hometown of Vancouver, Washington in 2002. He has since gone on to perform as Sammy in various theatrical productions.

De'zhon has performed in Las Vegas Casinos including Mandalay Bay, The Palms Casino, Caesar's Palace, and the Bali High Golf Club as well as in California at The Lodge at Pebble Beach, Escondido Performing Arts Center, Disneyland Theatre, and the Redondo Beach Performing Arts Center. He has also performed in Canada on several occasions and in Ireland. In March of 2005, he performed on AM Buffalo (in New York State) for the 44th annual Variety Kid's Telethon.

De'zhon continues to travel worldwide showcasing his homage to the legendary Sammy Davis Jr. and currently stars in the "Direct from Vegas" version of The Rat Pack that has toured the United States and Canada since 2002. His newest project is ARB Productions' Frank, Liza & Sammy, a tribute to the 1988 concert tour that saw Frank Sinatra, Liza Minnelli and Sammy Davis Jr. perform together across North America and around the world.
