

Frank, Liza and Sammy
a Tribute
The Ultimate Concert

Over an eighteen month period in 1988 and 1989, three of the greatest and most dynamic entertainers of all time, Frank Sinatra, Liza Minnelli and Sammy Davis Jr. toured major cities in North America, Japan, Europe, Hawaii and Australia in a show called "The Ultimate Event".

This production showcased the outstanding talents of these three great performers and included the music of some of the most successful songwriters in the history of show business. It also was one of the most popular and financially successful shows of its type, playing to thousand of fans around the world and grossing millions of dollars in revenue.

In memory of these legends this historic show has been recreated by ARB Productions.

Audiences will be mesmerized by the experience of seeing talented performers paying tribute to these legends and performing their music with good old fashion warmth, sincerity and vitality.

"Frank, Liza and Sammy" is a 90-minute show that combines great singing, entertaining choreography, dancing, humor and witty dialogue and features more than 30 memorable songs.

Individual performances by each artist, singing the songs made famous by these legends are combined with duets with Sammy and Liza, Frank and Liza and the whole experience is enhanced by the interaction of these great performers together on stage.

The final part of the show features the three performers singing a medley of some of the most popular songs from the 30's to the 50's, leading to the grand finale of none other than "New York, New York".

The camaraderie, friendship, love and respect that existed between these legends is captured throughout the show and makes "Frank, Liza and Sammy" is one of those moments to remember.
